ANA MARIA CARDONA vs. STATE OF FLORIDA

Appellant(s) Appellee(s)

Having considered the motion for extension of time filed by Goldman, Naccarato Vela & Associates, it is ordered that jurisdiction of the above case is temporarily relinquished to the Circuit Court of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida for a period of sixty days. The Honorable Bertila Ana Soto, Administrative Judge for the Criminal Division, is hereby appointed to preside over this matter. Judge Soto shall take such action as may be necessary to ensure that a complete record has been properly prepared and transmitted to this Court no later than sixty days from the date of this order.

Judge Soto is directed to hold a status conference which shall be attended by the Clerk of Court, the appropriate court reporters, counsel and such other persons Judge Soto may deem necessary as soon as possible to determine what is necessary to complete the record. The time and place of the status conference shall be set by Judge Soto.
