Stephanie -

Debbie (our appellate assistant) was able to pull together the following statistics:

CIVIL

2013 County to circuit appeals- 100 cases filed
2013 Admin Appeals - 17 cases filed
2013 Certiorari (CT) - 72 cases filed

2014 County to circuit appeals - 77 cases filed
2014 Admin Appeals - 15 cases filed
2014 Certiorari (CT) - 47 cases filed

2015 County to circuit appeals - as of today - 87 cases filed
2015 Admin appeals - as of today -17 cases filed
2015 Certiorari (CT) - as of today - 146 cases filed (including PIP cases)

As to the Writ of Mandamus - in civil 5 cases with one deft.

Cannot located the prohibition cases.

CRIMINAL

County to circuit appeals:
2013 70 cases filed
2014 67 cases filed
2015 62 cases filed

Prohibition: (there may have been a few more but can't find them
2013 - not sure
2014 1 case
2015 - 1 case

The categories we are looking for are:
(1) Appeals (civil, criminal, and administrative)
(2) Petitions for writ of certiorari; and
(3) Other petitions filed pursuant to the court's original jurisdiction, including mandamus, prohibition, quo warranto, common law certiorari and habeas corpus.

Thanks,
Stephanie

I think we have a way to track it. I assume you want criminal, civil and the Petitions for Writ of Cert?

Hi Amy,
Does the Fifteenth Circuit (or possibly the PBC Clerk's office) keep track of how many filings it gets each year pursuant to its jurisdiction under rule 9.030(c) (appeals from county court, petitions, etc.)? We are trying to gather some statistics from the circuits about their "appellate" caseloads.

Thanks,
Stephanie
