IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

DARRYL LEWIS DAVIS,

Petitioner, CASE NO.: SC16-1738; SC16-1739

vs.

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Petitioner, DARRYL LEWIS DAVIS, pursuant to Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.300, hereby requests a thirty (30) day extension of time beginning from the date of his initial brief's due date of April 10, 2017, to file Petitioner's initial brief. As grounds for this motion, Petitioner submits the following:

1. Petitioner's initial brief is due on April 10, 2017.

2. Undersigned counsel recently received official orders to attend five weeks of training as an Air Force Judge Advocate General Reservist at Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery, Alabama.

3. The duration of these orders begins on March 27 and ends on April 28.

4. During this time, undersigned counsel will have limited or no telephonic or e-mail access.

5. Despite diligent efforts, undersigned counsel needs an additional period of time to research and prepare the initial brief in this cause.

6. There have been no prior requests for extensions of time by the undersigned in this case.

7. The undersigned attorney is authorized to state that counsel for Appellee has no objection to this motion.

8. This motion is made in good faith and not for the purpose of unnecessary delay.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner, DARRYL LEWIS DAVIS, respectfully requests that this Court grant a thirty (30) day extension of time starting from the date of the initial brief's due date of April 10 for the filing of Petitioner's initial brief in this case.

Respectfully submitted,
