Interested party, Association Financial Services, L.C., a Florida limited liability company (“AFS”), by and through the undersigned counsel, moves this Court to allow the late filing of the AFS’ Brief of Interested Party in opposition to the Proposed Advisory Opinion of the Florida Standing Committee on Unlicensed Practice of Law and in support thereof states the following:

1. On June 14, 2013, AFS, through the undersigned counsel, timely submitted its Brief of Interested Party in Opposition to Proposed Advisory Opinion of the Standing Committee (the “Brief”) through the Florida Court’s eFiling Portal system (the “eFiling Portal”)
2. As a result of errors occurring with respect to the eFiling Portal, AFS’ submission was identified as “submission pending” past the Court ordered filing deadline of June 14, 2013 (the “Filing Deadline”).
3. As soon as the undersigned counsel realized that the filing status remained “submission pending” after the Filing Deadline, counsel contacted this Court’s clerk’s office to review the submission and assist with correcting the problems encountered when filing with the eFiling Portal.
4. After various conversation with the Clerk’s office and an e-filing supervisor’s review of the submission, it was determined that a “glitch” in the eFiling Portal caused the submission to remain as pending and not filed. The supervisor further assisted with correcting this problem and the filing of the AFS submission.
5. Following this assistance, AFS’ submission was filed on June 20, 2013.

WHEREFORE, AFS, through the undersigned counsel, respectfully requests this Honorable Court deem AFS' Brief submission as timely filed as of June 14, 2013.

Dated: June 20, 2013

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jeffrey M. Oshinsky
