IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

GREGG LERMAN,

Petitioner,

v.

Case No. SC16-783

RICK SCOTT, as Governor of the State of Florida and KEN DETZNER, as Secretary of State of the State of Florida, Respondents.

MOTION OF THOMAS R. BAKER FOR LEAVE TO INTERVENE AS PETITIONER

THOMAS R. BAKER (hereinafter "Intervenor") moves the Court for leave to intervene as a Petitioner in this action, with the right to litigate all matters arising therein. In support of this motion, Intervenor states as follows:

Facts Supporting Intervention

- 1. The instant proceeding is an original proceeding instituted in this Court. The outcome of the proceeding will determine the right of both the Petitioner and the Intervenor to seek election to the Palm Beach County Court seat being vacated by the Honorable Laura S. Johnson as opposed to the seat being filled through the appointment process.
- 2. As acknowledged in the original Petition filed herein (page 7 of Petition), the Intervenor timely fulfilled each of the steps required by Section

- 99.061, Florida Statutes, to qualify as a candidate for election to the County Court seat. (See Appendix hereto).
- 3. The decision of this Court in the above-referenced proceeding will directly and immediately impact the interests of the Intervenor by determining his ability to seek election to the Palm Beach County Court. The Intervenor's interest in the outcome of these proceedings is the same as the interest of the Petitioner. The Intervenor adopts the arguments set forth in the Petition filed herein.
- 4. Counsel for the Petitioner has advised undersigned counsel that the Petitioner does not oppose the requested intervention. The Respondent Governor Scott's counsel advises that the Governor takes no position on the Motion for Leave to Intervene. However, the Governor requests that if intervention is permitted that such relief not extend the existing briefing deadlines or in any way delay the expeditious resolution of this matter. Counsel for the Secretary of State on behalf of the Secretary contends that he is not properly a party in this original proceeding. Nonetheless, he takes no position regarding the motion to intervene. If the Court does permit Mr. Baker to intervene, the Secretary requests that the intervention not extend the existing briefing deadlines or otherwise delay the expeditious disposition of this case.

Standards for Granting the Motion to Intervene

5. The right to intervene should be liberally construed. As this Court has previously stated:

It has generally been held that the interest which will entitle a person to intervene under this provision must be in the matter in litigation, and of such a direct and immediate character that the intervenor will either gain or lose by the direct legal operation and effect of the judgment. In other words, the interest must be that created by a claim to the demand in the suit or some part thereof, or a claim to, or lien upon the property or some part thereof, which is the subject matter of the litigation.

Miracle House Corporation v. Haige, 96 So. 2d 417, 418 (Fla. 1957) (citations and internal quotes omitted). The Intervenor's interest is exactly of the type addressed; the Intervenor's rights will be adjudicated in the instant proceeding.

6. Although intervention at the Supreme Court level of proceedings is sometimes disfavored, that is not the case when, as in the instant proceeding, the matter before the Court is brought as an original proceeding. It has long been held, as noted in the early case of Orlando Transit Co. v. Florida R.R. & Public Utilities Com'n, 160 Fla. 795, 810 (Fla. 1948), that intervention in an original proceeding is permissible:

This court has repeatedly held that no intervention will be allowed here. It is conceivable that an exception to this rule might arise in a proceeding originally instituted in this court, because the one seeking to be heard would not have theretofore had that opportunity. Id (underlining added for emphasis).

7. The Intervenor clearly would have the right to file a separate petition and then move to consolidate such action with the above-styled matter. Tallahassee Democrat, Inc. v. O'Grady, 421 So. 2d 58 (Fla. 1st DCA 1982). However, in the interest of judicial economy, since the legal issues and facts presented by the Intervenor are essentially identical to those presented in the Petition, the Court should grant the requested intervention.

Prayer

WHEREFORE, Intervenor, Thomas R. Baker, respectfully asks this Court to enter an order granting this motion for leave to intervene as a Petitioner in this action with the right to litigate all matters arising therein.

Respectfully submitted on this 18th day of May, 2016.
