Re: The Florida Bar v. Dennis L. Horton; Supreme Court Case No. SC17-782

Dear Sirs:

You recently received a letter from Ms. Carrie Lee of The Florida Bar's Orlando branch office regarding suspension of Mr. Dennis Horton's law office IOLTA trust account. I represent Dennis L. Horton.

The purpose of this letter is to make clear that the Order you received applies only to Mr. Dennis L. Horton. It does not apply to any other member of his law firm. I understand that Michael G. Horton, Esq. is also a signatory to the law firm banking accounts. It is important for you to understand that the Order you received does not apply to, and does not impair or hinder Michael Horton in any way from conducting the business, banking and legal affairs of owner of the bank account, The Law Office of Horton & Horton, P.A.

If there is any question regarding the scope of the Order you received, I would encourage you to have your legal counsel review the Order. If there is disagreement with anything asserted in this letter, please have your counsel contact me regarding Mr. Horton's business and property rights.

Thank you for your attention to this important legal matter.

Sincerely,

Brett Alan Geer
