THE FLORIDA BAR'S RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT'S "MANIFEST INJUSTICE" MOTION

Complainant The Florida Bar opposes Respondent Phillip Timothy Howard's ("Respondent") motion asserting "Manifest Injustice." This Court correctly dismissed Respondent's notice of intent to seek review of report of referee for failure to file a compliant initial brief on the merits and transcripts in accordance with the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar. Respondent offers no arguments supporting reversal of the dismissal, instead rearguing verbatim many of the claims he has already made across various filings and now accusing the Clerk of the Supreme Court of conduct amounting to "manifest injustice." To the extent Respondent's motion is deemed a motion for rehearing under Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.330, Respondent offers no points of law or fact that the Court has overlooked or misapprehended in dismissing Respondent's notice of intent to seek review. The Court should deny Respondent's motion as unauthorized and meritless. See, e.g., Fla. Bar v. Campbell, No. SC17-1738 (Fla. Jan. 13, 2022).

Respectfully submitted on January 20, 2021.
