

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

IN RE: AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES CASE NO. SC20-1543
REGULATING THE FLORIDA BAR
5-1.1(g)

TASK FORCE ON DISTRIBUTION OF IOTA FUNDS
NOTICE OF SCRIVENER'S ERROR

The Task Force on Distribution of IOTA Funds (the task force) respectfully files this notice of scrivener's error. The oral argument on May 5, 2021, brought to light scrivener's errors in the revised proposal filed by the task force on March 3, 2021.

In response to comments regarding the Florida Bar Foundation's Loan Repayment Assistance Program and comments regarding use of IOTA funds for technology and training, the task force filed on March 3, 2021, a revised proposal that clarified proposed new subdivisions (g)(8) and (9) on those 2 issues: that IOTA funds can be used for the Loan Repayment Assistance Program and for technology and training incurred to directly facilitate a qualified legal service provider providing direct qualified legal services. In doing so, we failed to use the exact terminology "qualified legal services provider" set forth in proposed new subdivision (g)(1)(H) and instead used the terminology "qualified services provider." We believe this may have created some confusion and respectfully file this notice of scrivener's error to amend our revised proposal to use the terminology "qualified legal services provider" (emphasis added).

To assist this Court, the revised task force proposal, with the above 2 changes highlighted, is attached as Appendix A.

Finally, the task force appreciates the opportunity to assist this Court, and will continue to assist this Court in any way this Court deems appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mayanne Downs
