MOTION TO FILE UNTIMELY NOTICE OF INTENT TO SEEK REVIEW OF REPORT OF REFEREE

The Complainant, THE FLORIDA BAR, by and through its undersigned attorney, moves this Court to accept the accompanying Notice of Intent to Seek Review of Report of Referee two days late. In support of this motion, the undersigned shows to this Court:

1. The Notice of Intent to Seek Review of Report of Referee was due Monday, July 19, 2021.
2. On June 28, 2021, The Florida Bar filed notice via letter that it would file a notice of intent to seek review of the report of referee in this matter.

RECEIVED, 07/21/2021 12:52:31 PM, Clerk, Supreme Court

3. The undersigned has not previously filed a notice of review and was under the mistaken impression that it would be filed by outside counsel retained for appellate purposes who has not yet appeared in this case.

4. The belated notice of review is filed with this motion.

5. The Florida Bar is awaiting transcription of the Final Hearing which is anticipated to be completed in the coming days. Transcripts will be filed upon receipt by The Florida Bar.

6. The Bar does not seek review of the referee's recommendations concerning guilt, but only review of the referee's recommendation of a 6-month suspension. The Florida Bar seeks imposition of a one-year suspension along with the remaining recommendations and conditions recommended by the referee.

WHEREFORE, the Bar respectfully requests this Court accept the Notice of Intent to Seek Review of Report of Referee for filing.

Respectfully submitted,

Evan D. Rosen, Bar Counsel
