THE FLORIDA BAR,

SUPREME COURT CASE

Complainant,

NO. SC20-1777

v.

The Florida Bar File
No. 2019-10,038(20A)

RAYMOND B. MITCHELL

Respondent.

MOTION FOR CLARIFICATION / NOTICE OF REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT WAS FILED

Raymond B. Mitchell, Respondent, gives notice that he had requested that he be granted time for an oral argument in his Motion he filed around October 13, 2021. From the Order entered on December 29, 2021 stating that “the case has been submitted to the Court without oral argument” it is not clear to Respondent whether his Motion was overlooked or if the Court decided to dispense with oral argument in its discretion. Respondent requests an oral argument if his Motion was overlooked or clarification if the Court decided oral argument was not necessary.
