

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

THE FLORIDA BAR,

CASE NO. SC21-933

Complainant,

Florida Bar File No.
2020-30,738(09A)

v.

ODIATOR ARUGU,

Respondent.

RESPONDENT'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME IN WHICH TO FILE ANSWER BRIEF AND INITIAL BRIEF

The Respondent, Odiator Arugu, through his undersigned attorney, files this Unopposed Motion for a seven-day Extension of Time in which to file his Answer Brief and Initial Brief and says:

1. The Initial Brief in this matter was served on March 14, 2022.
2. The Respondent's Answer Brief and Initial Brief in this matter is due on this date, April 4, 2022.
3. Undersigned counsel and the Respondent are seeking a seven-day extension in which to submit the Answer Brief and Respondent's Initial Brief. This is necessitated by undersigned counsel's schedule and workload over the past few weeks, as well as a long-planned out of state trip for undersigned counsel in which he experienced travel delays.

RECEIVED, 04/04/2022 02:05:21 PM, Clerk, Supreme Court

4. The counsel for Petitioner, the Florida Bar, has confirmed by email that she does not oppose this seven-day extension.

5. The nature of the case is a complaint by opposing counsel regarding issuance of a subpoena during a contested divorce. Additional time for the Answer Brief and Initial Brief will not prejudice The Florida Bar, and Respondent submits that it will not place any member of the public at risk.

6. The Respondent is in favor of and requests this extension, and he is copied on the filing for the extension with this Court.

7. The extension sought would be for seven days from April 4, 2022, to or through April 11, 2022.

WHEREFORE the Respondent respectfully requests that this Court grant his Unopposed Motion for a seven-day Extension of Time and that it order that his Answer Brief and Initial Brief be filed on or before April 11, 2022.
