

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

THE FLORIDA BAR,

Petitioner,

v.

JONATHAN BENJAMIN LEWIS,

Respondent.

Supreme Court Case
No. SC22-592

The Florida Bar File
No. 2022-50,590(17C)OSC

_____ /

THE FLORIDA BAR'S REPLY TO THE MAY 2, 2022

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Florida Bar, by and through its undersigned counsel, files this reply and would state:

1. Pursuant to the Court's order the respondent was to serve his response on or before May 17, 2022. The respondent has not filed a response to this Court's order.

2. Given the respondent's failure to respond in this contempt action, The Florida Bar requests entry of an order pursuant to Rule 3-7.11(f)(1)(D) of the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar which provides:

Failure to Respond to Order to Show Cause. On failure to timely respond to an order to show cause, the matters alleged in the petition are deemed admitted and the Supreme Court of Florida may enter a judgment of contempt and impose appropriate sanctions. Failure to respond may be an additional basis for the Supreme

RECEIVED, 05/24/2022 04:54:21 PM, Clerk, Supreme Court

Court of Florida to enter a judgment of contempt and to impose sanctions.

3. The other members of The Florida Bar should not have to pay for respondent's noncompliance with this Court's order and the instant proceeding. Therefore, The Florida Bar is requesting an administrative fee of $1,250.00 against respondent.

WHEREFORE, The Florida Bar requests entry of an order pursuant to Rule 3-7.11(f)(1)(D) and access an administrative fee of $1,250.00 against respondent.

Respectfully submitted,

Allie F. Huston, Bar Counsel
